

While some of the following questions can be answered by consulting the written course materials, or other sources, most of the questions require you to listen to the entire program.

If you read the questions prior to listening to the program, you will be able to answer all of the following questions with no difficulty. However, all of the questions relate to the actual subject matter of the course--I have not included mere "code words".

After completing the program, you may e-mail your answers to clem.law@usa.net.

1. What group, while important to the early Minnesota economy, is not discussed, other than at the beginning of the program?
2. What year was the Northwest Ordinance passed by the Continental Congress?
3. The convention of August 26, 1848, which elected Henry Hastings Sibley as its delegate, took place where? (E.g., it is known as the _____ Convention).
4. The Board of County Supervisors of _____ County, Wisconsin Territory, continued to function even after Wisconsin statehood.
5. Henry Hastings Sibley actually resided _____ of the Mississippi at the time of his election in 1848. (You may give either the compass direction, or the name of the former territory.)
6. How many simultaneous Constitutional Conventions took place in Minnesota in 1857?
7. The Minnesota Constitution's right to _____ has been interpreted to mean that the right, as it existed at the time of the adoption of the constitution, shall continue unimpaired.
8. Who was the first Chief Justice of the Minnesota Territorial Supreme Court?
9. In what type of structure did the first session of the Minnesota Territorial Supreme Court take place?
10. Which Justice of the Minnesota Territorial Supreme Court began carrying out his duties despite never being approved by the Senate?